

her law degree from Harvard Law School. As a valuable member of the Computer & Technology Section Council of the State Bar of Texas and the Texas Judicial Council, Judge Miskel is a board certified family lawyer and will soon earn her certification in child welfare law.

Now as Judge Miskel is honored by the National Center for State Courts for demonstrating the outstanding qualities of judicial excellence—integrity, fairness, open-mindedness, knowledge of the law, professional ethics, creativity, sound judgement, intellectual courage, and decisiveness, I encourage my colleagues in the House of Representatives to join me in celebrating her many achievements in the area of judicial excellence and leadership.

TRIBUTE TO JOHN BAYLISS,
LOGAN COUNTY COMMISSIONER

HON. JIM JORDAN

OF OHIO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, December 2, 2020

Mr. JORDAN. Madam Speaker, it is my honor to pay tribute to Logan County Commissioner John F. Bayliss of Rushsylvania, Ohio. John will retire at the end of this year after nearly a quarter-century of outstanding service to the people of Logan County.

Throughout his six terms on the Board of Commissioners—making him the longest-serving commissioner in Logan County history—John has become known for his superb management skills. His years of experience in the private sector, both as the owner of a residential building and remodeling company and as a farmer, prepared him well for the diverse fiscal challenges of local government.

During his time in office, John has served on numerous boards and committees, including the Logan County Community Improvement Board, the Local Emergency Planning Committee, and several committees of the County Commissioners Association of Ohio. He is also a past county president of the Ohio Farm Bureau and a past county and state president of the Ohio Sheep Improvement Association.

A graduate of The Ohio State University, John and his wife of 44 years, Sharon, are the proud parents of three children: Brian, Courtney, and Brendan. They especially enjoy spending time with their seven grandchildren.

John's colleagues and friends will gather on December 8 to celebrate his many contributions and distinguished record. On behalf of the people of Ohio's Fourth Congressional District, I am proud to join in the accolades to him for his many years of fine public service. We wish him and his family every success as they move to a new chapter in their lives.

WEDDING CONGRATULATIONS FOR JOHN LYNCH AND ALEXA
PAPADOPOULOS

HON. TJ COX

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, December 2, 2020

Mr. COX of California. Madam Speaker, I rise to recognize and congratulate Mr. John Lynch and Ms. Alexa Papadopoulos on their upcoming wedding. John was an instrumental part of my team and I am honored to call him a friend and a colleague. He and Alexa are fine examples of young men and women who have stepped up to work in government to make a positive difference in the lives of all Americans through their efforts, capability and professionalism.

As our Senior Legislative Assistant, John has shown great attentiveness and care for some of the most pressing issues of the Central Valley—water infrastructure, economic growth and public policy. John's tireless work serving our communities is invaluable, and his work on water policy will certainly carry on helping thousands of people here in the Valley. John ties our team together with his personality and humor, all while continuing his vital service to so many individuals and communities.

I offer my warmest congratulations and best wishes to John and Alexa as they begin this new chapter in their lives. We all join their family and friends in celebrating this wonderful milestone. I ask my colleagues in the U.S. House of Representatives to join me in celebrating this couple. We wish them well as they continue to build a happy, healthy life together.

HONORING THE LIFE OF WORLD
WAR I AND II VETERAN EXIQUEL
IGLESIAS DE LEON

HON. NORMA J. TORRES

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, December 2, 2020

Mrs. TORRES of California. Madam Speaker, I rise today to honor the life of World War I and II veteran Exiquel Iglesias De Leon and his unquestionable dedication to family and country.

At only nineteen years old, Exiquel courageously enlisted in the Navy during the height of World War I. Twenty-six years after his honorable service, he subsequently re-enlisted in the United States Naval Reserve to serve during World War II. Exiquel continued his service for another eight years with the Naval Reserve, stationed at the Eleventh Naval District. For nearly the remainder of his life, he put in hard work as a rigger at the Mare Island Navy Yard in Vallejo, California.

A native Guamanian, Exiquel became a naturalized United States citizen on November 3, 1944, following his decades of honorable service to our country. Never forgetting his roots, he made frequent trips to Long Beach to participate in community events to celebrate the Guamanian people. He believed strongly in celebrating his culture's traditions and the diversity of American culture. As a new American citizen, Exiquel proudly became a California homeowner, residing in Compton, California with his family for the remainder of his life.

His family remembers him as a great cook who always "cooked with love" and as an avid boxing fan. Exiquel and his family frequently took the "Red Car" out on weekends to the Grand Central Market in Los Angeles to enjoy time together and with their community.

For his exemplary life of service, Madam Speaker, it is my honor to recognize Exiquel

Iglesias De Leon on the House floor. As demonstrated by his commitment to American values, service in two World Wars, admirable work ethic, and tenure as an upstanding citizen, Exiquel is the American Dream personified. May he rest in peace.

LEAGUE OF WOMEN VOTERS OF
SCARSDALE 100TH ANNIVERSARY

HON. ELIOT L. ENGEL

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, December 2, 2020

Mr. ENGEL. Madam Speaker, it is an honor to recognize one of the finest civic organizations in my district, the League of Women Voters of Scarsdale, which in January, 2021 will be celebrating its incredible 100th Anniversary.

The Scarsdale League of Women Voters is a nonpartisan political organization that grew out of the suffrage movement. There were many suffragists in Scarsdale and Westchester over 100 years ago, fighting for the right for women to vote in public elections. Over its 100 years, the League has worked to protect and expand voting rights in our area. Their mission is to promote civic engagement, to communicate clear voter information, including on the ways to vote, dates of voting, and to help voters understand candidate and policy positions prior to elections. The League prides itself on holding Candidate Forum events in order to help our community members, from Scarsdale and beyond, make informed decisions at the polls.

In addition, The Scarsdale League studies selected governmental issues every year and creates statements through a consensus process. They also organize various speaker events for our community and engage in civics education in the local schools, programming that is particularly important now at this moment in our history.

Madam Speaker, the League of Women Voters of Scarsdale is an active local community organization and they are very excited to be reaching this 100-year milestone. I too am excited that I get to share this wonderful centennial anniversary with them, and I congratulate their team on continuing to raise the bar on civic engagement in New York's 16th Congressional District.

IN HONOR OF SENATOR MARTHA
FULLER CLARK

HON. CHRIS PAPPAS

OF NEW HAMPSHIRE

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, December 2, 2020

Mr. PAPPAS. Madam Speaker, I rise today to honor State Senator Martha Fuller Clark, who is retiring from public service after three decades of service to the people of New Hampshire. She has been a fierce advocate for the Seacoast, first serving as a State Representative for 12 years before serving as a State Senator for 12 years.

During our time serving in the state Legislature together, I saw firsthand Senator Fuller Clark's passion, grace, and civility. She is unflinchingly committed to the ideals of public service, always bringing the voices and experiences of those she represents with her to inform her work in Concord. Senator Fuller
